Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

(1) Organization and Nature of Business

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC (the “Company”) is a wholly owned subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited (the “Parent”). The Company is a registered broker-dealer with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company’s business is to offer securities clearing, processing and financing services to clients.

(2) Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company’s Statement of Financial Condition is prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”), which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the Statement of Financial Condition. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company defines cash equivalents to be highly liquid investments with original maturities of ninety days or less, which may include federal funds sold on an overnight basis. The Company maintains amounts due from banks which, at times, exceed federally insured limits.

(c) Receivables from Customers/Payables to Customers

Receivables from customers and Payables to customers include amounts due on regular way securities transactions and margin transactions. Securities owned by customers, including those that collateralize margin or similar transactions are not reflected in the Statement of Financial Condition. Customer transactions that are failed to be received or delivered are recorded in Receivables from and Payables to broker-dealers and clearing organizations on the Statement of Financial Condition.

(d) Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 740, Accounting for Income Taxes. FASB ASC 740 requires that deferred taxes be established based upon the temporary differences between financial statement and income tax bases of assets and liabilities using the enacted statutory rates.

The Company files federal tax returns on a stand-alone basis and is included in the combined New York State and City Article 9A return with the Parent and its affiliates. Pursuant to a tax sharing arrangement with the Parent and certain affiliates, the Company establishes an intercompany payable/receivable for any current state and local taxes. Deferred tax is provided in full, using the balance sheet method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements.

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with FASB ASC 740. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

(e) Collateralized Transactions

(i) Securities Purchased Under Agreements to Resell and Securities Sold Under Agreements to Repurchase

Securities purchased under agreements to resell (“reverse repurchase agreements”) and securities sold under agreements to repurchase (“repurchase agreements”) are accounted for as collateralized financing transactions and are recorded at their contracted resale or repurchase amounts. Due to the highly liquid nature of the underlying collateral (primarily U.S. government and agency securities) and the short-term maturity of these agreements, contractual amounts approximate fair value. It is the policy of the Company to take possession of securities in order to collateralize reverse repurchase agreements. The collateral value, including accrued interest, is monitored daily and additional collateral is obtained when appropriate to protect the Company in the event of default by the counterparty. All repurchase and reverse repurchase activities are transacted under master netting agreements that give the Company the right, in the event of default, to liquidate collateral held and offset receivables and payables with the same counterparty. Accrued interest income and interest expense are reported as part of Securities purchased under agreements to resell and Securities sold under agreements to repurchase, respectively, on the Statement of Financial Condition.

(ii) Securities Borrowed and Loaned Transactions

Securities borrowed and loaned transactions are accounted for as collateralized financing transactions. The Company pledges cash or securities (typically U.S. Treasuries) to collateralize securities borrowed transactions, and will receive cash or securities (typically U.S. Treasuries) to collateralize securities loaned transactions. Cash collateral transactions are recorded at their contracted amount (the amount of cash collateral advanced or received). The Company also enters into securities borrow transactions where the collateral delivered or received is other securities (security-for-security transactions). The Company’s Accounting Policy is to record a balance sheet gross-up entry for security-for-security finance transactions, when the Company is legally the “lender”.

Securities borrowed transactions require the Company to deposit collateral with the lender in excess of the market value of the securities borrowed. The fair value of securities borrowed and loaned is monitored daily and additional collateral is obtained or refunded when appropriate to protect the Company in the event of default by the counterparty.

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

Rebates earned or paid on securities borrowing or lending transactions are shown in the caption Interest and dividends receivable or Interest and dividends payable, respectively, on the Statement of Financial Condition.

All securities borrowed and loaned transactions are subject to an enforceable master netting agreement that give the Company the right, in the event of default, to liquidate collateral held and offset receivables and payables with the same counterparty.

(f) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Substantially all of the Company's assets and liabilities are carried at fair value or contracted amounts which approximate fair value. Assets, which are recorded at contracted amounts approximating fair value, consist largely of short-term secured receivables, including securities borrowed and securities purchased under agreements to resell. Similarly, the Company's short-term liabilities, such as securities loaned and securities sold under agreements to repurchase, are recorded at contracted amounts approximating fair value. These instruments generally have variable interest rates and/or short-term maturities, in many cases overnight and, accordingly, their fair values are not materially affected by changes in interest rates or market movements. Subordinated borrowings are recorded at contracted amounts, approximating fair value.

(g) Derivative Instruments

As part of its clearing activities for its clients, the Company will facilitate forward repurchase agreements between the client and third parties. In accordance with the requirements of the clearing exchange, the Company is required to act as a principal in these transactions prior to settlement date. The Company accounts for these transactions as forward contracts and monitors the change in the fair value of the contracts for recognition in the Statement of Financial Condition.

In addition, the Company will facilitate forward mortgage-backed securities transactions for its clients. The Company acts as a principal prior to settlement date. The Company accounts for these transactions as forward contracts and monitors the change in the fair value of the contracts for recognition in the Statement of Financial Condition.

(h) Foreign Currencies

The Company has cash on deposit with banks, as well as payables to customers and counterparties, denominated in foreign currencies. These assets and liabilities are translated at closing exchange rates at June 29, 2018.

(i) Other

The Company engages in margin lending to clients that allows the client to borrow against the value of qualifying securities and is included within Receivables from customer and broker-dealer in the Company's Statement of Financial Condition. Client receivables generated from margin lending activities are collateralized by client-owned securities held by the Company.

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

The Company monitors required margin levels and established credit limits daily and, pursuant to such guidelines, requires clients to deposit additional collateral, or reduce positions, when necessary. Margin loans are extended on a demand basis and are not committed facilities. Factors considered in the review of margin loans are the amount of the loan, the intended purpose, the degree of leverage being employed in the account, and overall evaluation of the portfolio to ensure proper diversification or, in the case of concentrated positions, appropriate liquidity of the underlying collateral or potential hedging strategies to reduce risk. Additionally, positions related to concentrated or restricted positions require a review of any legal impediments to liquidation of the underlying collateral. Underlying collateral for margin loans is reviewed with respect to the liquidity of the proposed collateral positions, valuation of securities, historic trading range, volatility analysis and an evaluation of industry concentrations. For these transactions, adherence to the Company's collateral policies significantly limits the Company's credit exposure in the event of a client default. The Company may request additional margin collateral from clients, if appropriate, and, if necessary, may sell securities that have not been paid for or purchase securities sold but not delivered from customers.

At June 29, 2018, cash and securities of $139,850,271 and $290,949,487, respectively, were deposited with clearing organizations. Additionally, securities of $144,154,520 were segregated under federal and other regulations. Securities deposited with clearing organizations or segregated under federal and other regulations or requirements are primarily sourced from Reverse repurchase agreements in the Company's Statement of Financial Condition.

(k) Accounting Developments

Income Taxes

In March 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued ASU 2018-05 which amended income tax accounting guidance to include guidance issued by the SEC related to the implementation of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (the "Tax Act"), which we have applied.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASC 606)

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). ASU No. 2014-09 provides comprehensive guidance on the recognition of revenue from customers arising from the transfer of goods and services. The ASU also provides guidance on accounting for certain contract costs, and requires new disclosures. ASU No. 2014-09, as amended by ASU No. 2015-14, ASU No. 2017-08, ASU No. 2017-10 and ASU No. 2017-12, is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. Early adoption is permitted for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017. We adopted the requirements of the new standard on January 1st 2018. The adoption did not have a material effect on the Statement of Financial Condition

Year Ended June 29, 2018

Leases (ASC 842)

In February 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-02, Leases (Topic 842). ASU 2017-02 requires that, at lease inception, a lessee recognize in the statements of financial condition a right-of-use asset, representing the right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and a lease liability, representing the liability to make lease payments. The ASU also requires that for finance leases, a lessee recognize interest expense on the lease liability, separately from the amortization of the right-of-use asset in the statements of earnings, while for operating leases, such amounts should be recognized as a combined expense in the statements of earnings. In addition, ASU No. 2017-02 requires expanded disclosures about the nature and terms of lease agreements and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019 for non-public companies. Early adoption is permitted. The Company expects a gross up on its Statement of Financial Condition upon recognition of the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities and does not expect the amount of the gross up to have a material impact on its financial condition.

Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment (ASC 350)

In January 2017, the FASB issued ASU No. 2017-04, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other (Topic 350) - Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment. The ASU simplifies the quantitative goodwill impairment test by eliminating the second step of the test. Under this ASU, impairment will be measured by comparing the estimated fair value of the reporting unit with its carrying value. The ASU is effective for the Company in 2020. The Firm does not expect that adoption will have a material impact on the results of its goodwill impairment test.

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

In the normal course of business, the Company obtains securities under agreements to resell and securities borrowed on terms which permit it to resell or lend the securities to others. At June 29, 2018, the Company obtained via either secured borrowings or reverse repurchase agreements securities with a fair value of $65,383,405,886, of which approximately $64,789,120,067 have been either sold under agreements to repurchase or lent to others in connection with the Company's activities.

At June 29, 2018, the Company had non-cash securities lending agreements. The Company has transferred assets (U.S. treasuries), accounted for as financing, and received (U.S. equities) as collateral. The fair value of the collateral received is recorded in the Statement of Financial Condition as "Securities received as collateral" and "Obligation to return collateral" in the amount of $1,634,229,215.

In addition, at June 29, 2018, the Company has off-balance sheet securities borrowed of $1,461,334,308 collateralized by securities pledged of $1,461,334,308.

(4) Derivative Instruments

The Company enters into forward starting reverse repurchase agreements (agreements that have an extended settlement term) that are primarily secured by collateral from U.S. government securities. At June 29, 2018, the Company had reverse repurchase and repurchase agreements of $683,687,000 and $3,943,273,000, respectively, that had an immaterial fair value.

The Company enters into forward settlement US agency mortgage-backed securities (transactions with an extended settlement term). At June 29, 2018, the Company had buy and sell transactions of $17,155,238,000 and $17,155,888,000, respectively, that had an immaterial fair value.

(5) Intangible Assets

Under the provisions of ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, for intangible assets not subject to amortization, the Company evaluates on an annual basis whether the fair value is greater than the carrying value of such assets. The Company has concluded that the fair value is greater than the carrying amounts of such assets. Intangible assets not subject to amortization consisting of customer relationships amounted to $8,480,450 at June 29, 2018, and are included in Other assets in the Statement of Financial Condition.

	$ 1,160,011,554	$ 1,072,782,025

(7) Furniture, Equipment and Leasehold Improvements

Furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements consist of leasehold improvements, furniture, fixtures, computer and communication equipment, and software. Furniture, equipment and leasehold improvements are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization of premises and equipment are provided by the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset.

Leasehold improvements are amortized over the lesser of the estimated useful life of the asset or, where applicable, the remaining term of the lease, but generally not exceeding five years.

Furniture, equipment and leasehold improvement costs are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances suggest that an asset's carrying value may not be fully recoverable in accordance with current accounting guidance.

Furniture, equipment and leaseholds consisted of the following at June 29, 2018:

Furniture, equipment, and software	$ 14,067,310

As of June 29, 2018, there was $303,000,000 of reverse repurchase agreements outstanding with the Parent and affiliates with a weighted average interest rate of 2.05% as of June 29, 2018. During the year, the average balance of reverse repurchase agreements was $112,000,000 with a weighted average interest rate of 1.21%. During the year, the average balance of repurchase agreements was $20,000,000 with a weighted average interest rate of 1.12%.

(9) Employee Benefit Plans

The Company maintains a Traditional and Roth 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”). Each year, participants may contribute up to 20% of pretax annual compensation, as defined in the Plan, subject to certain Internal Revenue Code limitations. Participants may also contribute amounts representing rollover distributions from other qualified plans. The Company will make a matching contribution up to 100% of the first 4% of base compensation that a participant contributes as pre-tax and after-tax contributions to the Plan. In addition, the Company will make a non-elective contribution of the lesser of 100% of the participant’s contribution or 5% of a participant’s base compensation.

(10) Borrowings Subordinated to Claims of General Creditors

The Company has two subordinated borrowing agreements with the Parent in the amounts of $100,000,000 and $300,000,000. The $100,000,000 subordinated borrowing has an interest rate of .07% and matures on October 15, 2019 and the $300,000,000 subordinated borrowing has an interest rate of .2% and matures on September 30, 2020.

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

The borrowings has been approved by FINRA and are available in computing net capital under SEC Rule 15c3-1. These borrowings are subordinated to the claims of general creditors and, to the extent they are required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, may not be repaid.

Associated with the borrowings are two secured demand note receivables of $400,000,000 from the Parent, which are noninterest-bearing and are collateralized by U.S. Treasury securities with an estimated fair value of $108,650,115 and Supranational debt with an estimated fair value of $328,671,955 as of June 29, 2018.

(11) Income Taxes

The Tax Act, enacted on December 22, 2017, significantly revised U.S. corporate income tax law by, among other things, reducing the corporate income tax rate to 21%, and implementing a modified territorial tax system that includes a one-time transition tax on deemed repatriated earnings of foreign subsidiaries; imposes a minimum tax on GILTI and an alternative base erosion and anti-abuse tax ("BEAT") on U.S. corporations that make deductible payments to non-U.S. related persons in excess of specified amounts; and broadens the tax base by partially or wholly eliminating tax deductions for certain historically deductible expenses.

In response to the enactment of the Tax Act, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 118 which summarized the procedures to properly account for and disclose the impact of the Tax Act. We applied this guidance in estimating the remeasurement of deferred taxes.

Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when such differences are expected to reverse. Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. Net deferred tax assets at June 29, 2018, were $2,375,966, comprised of $3,077,136 of gross deferred tax liabilities and $5,453,102 of gross deferred tax assets, included in Deferred tax liability and Other assets on the Statement of Financial Condition, respectively. Deferred tax liabilities relate principally to the excess of book over tax basis of the intangible assets and fixed assets. Deferred tax assets relate principally to compensation. Federal taxes receivable of $651,038 and intercompany state taxes payable of $908,298 are included in Other assets and Other liabilities, in the Statement of Financial Condition.

The Company believes it is more-likely-than-not that the Company will realize the benefits of the gross deferred tax assets taken into account the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities and projected future taxable income over the period on which the deferred tax assets become deductible.

As of June 29, 2018, the Company had no unrecognized tax benefits or related accrued interest and penalties.

The earliest taxable year that the Company is subject to Federal and New York State tax examination is 2015. In the first quarter 2018, the Company and New York City settled audit differences related to the years 2012 through 2014.

(12) Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 (the "Rule"), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital. The Company has elected to use the alternative method, as permitted by the Rule, which requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of $1,500,000 or 2% of aggregate debit balances arising from customer transactions, as defined. At June 29, 2018, the Company had net capital of $493,107,461 which was $483,580,799 in excess of required net capital of $9,526,662.

The Company is also subject to the SEC's Customer Protection Rule ("SEC Rule 15c3-3"), which requires, under certain circumstances, that cash or securities be deposited into a special reserve bank account for the exclusive benefit of customers and for the proprietary accounts of introducing brokers. At June 29, 2018, the Company's Customer reserve computation indicated no reserve requirement. At June 29, 2018, the Company had qualified securities in the amount of $53,560,865 segregated in its account reserved for the exclusive benefit of customers.

The Company is also required to perform a computation of reserve requirements for Proprietary Accounts of Brokers ("PAB"). At June 29, 2018, the Company's PAB reserve computation indicated a reserve requirement of $3,302,689. At June 29, 2018, the Company had qualified securities in the amount of $90,593,656 segregated in its PAB reserve account.

(13) Commitments, Contingencies and Guarantees

The Company is a member of various exchanges that trade and clear securities or futures contracts or both. Associated with its membership, the Company may be required to pay a proportionate share of the financial obligations of another member who may default on its obligations to the exchange. Although the rules governing different exchange memberships vary, in general the Company's guarantee obligations would arise only if the exchange had previously exhausted its resources.

In addition, any such guarantee obligation would be apportioned among the other non-defaulting members of the exchange. Any potential contingent liability under these membership agreements cannot be estimated. The Company has not recorded any contingent liability in the Statement of Financial Condition for these agreements and believes that any potential requirement to make payments under these agreements is remote.

The Company leases office space under an operating lease which expires in January 2021. The Company has sub-leases related to the foregoing operating lease. Future minimum lease payments during the next three years at June 29, 2018 are as follows:

Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Financial Services LLC
(A Wholly Owned Subsidiary of Industrial and Commercial Bank of China Limited)
Notes to the Statement of Financial Condition
Year Ended June 29, 2018

Year	Gross Amount	Sublease Income	Net Amount
2018	$ 1,945,875	$ 676,578	$ 1,269,297
2019	3,891,750	1,353,156	2,538,594
2020	3,891,750	902,104	2,989,646
2021	324,313	-	324,313
	$ 10,053,688	$ 2,931,838	$ 7,121,850

There are no minimum lease obligation after 2021. Occupancy lease agreements, in addition to base rentals, generally provide for operating expense escalations resulting from increased assessments for real estate taxes and other charges. Also, in accordance with the lease agreement, the Company has deposited a letter of credit with the landlord in the amount of $1,945,875 as security.

In accordance with FASB ASC 450, Contingencies, the Company's policy regarding legal and other contingencies is to accrue a liability when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the loss can be reasonably estimated.

(14) Credit Risk

The Company enters into short-term collateralized financing transactions and, consequently, has credit risk for the timely repayment of principal and interest. Credit risk is measured by the loss the Company would record if its counterparties failed to perform pursuant to the terms of their contractual obligations and the value of collateral held, if any, was not adequate to cover such losses. Specifically, the Company's potential credit loss exposure for contractual commitments is equal to the market or fair value of contractual commitments that are in a net asset position less the effect of master netting agreements. The Company has established controls to monitor the creditworthiness of counterparties, as well as the quality of pledged collateral, and uses master netting agreements whenever possible to mitigate the Company's exposure to counterparty credit risk. The Company may require counterparties to submit additional collateral when deemed necessary. The Company controls the collateral pledged by the counterparties, which consists largely of securities issued by the U.S. government or its agencies and the fair value of which approximates the carrying amount of the financing transactions.

The Company monitors exposure to individual counterparties and securities for concentrations above approved limits. There were no concentrations as of June 29, 2018.

(15) Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in several judicial, regulatory and arbitration proceedings concerning matters arising in connection with the conduct of the Company's businesses. A few of these proceedings are in early stages and seek an indeterminate amount of damages.

In the first quarter 2018, the Company paid fines to FINRA and the SEC, totaling $6,160,000 related to several of such matters (the amount accrued for in prior year).

In addition to the above, the Company is subject to, or involved in, investigations and other proceedings by government agencies and self-regulatory organizations, with respect to which the Company is cooperating. Such investigations and other proceedings may result in judgments, settlements, fines, disgorgements, penalties, injunctions or other relief.

Given the inherent uncertainties and the current stage of these inquiries, and the Company's ongoing reviews, the Company is unable to predict the outcome of these matters at this time.
